

Montgomery County Chapter
Ohio Genealogical Society

Montgomery County Records Center & Archives

NEXT MEETING

Saturday, November 9, 2019 - 1 p.m.
Social time with refreshments - 12:30-1 p.m.

Dayton Metro Library, Community Room 2-B
215 E. Third Street, Downtown Dayton

Tina Ratcliff will give a behind-the-scenes look at the operations of the Montgomery County Records Center & Archives, located in the historic Reibold Building in downtown Dayton. She will talk about the historical records of Montgomery County and their future. Tina will also give tips for how genealogists should approach government employees when searching for hard-to-find records. Finally, she will talk about the Ohio Historical Records Advisory Board, its advocacy on behalf of Ohio's historical records and its new Ohio Citizen Archivist Program.

Membership

$12/Year Individual

$15/Year Family

$25/Year Sustaining

$12/Year Plus
Membership Fee for
Paper Copy of Family
Tree Newsletter

Contact

P.O. Box 1584
Dayton, Oh 45401-1584
Publicity@mcc-ogs.org
<https://mcc-ogs.org/>

Tina is a graduate of Ohio University and Wright State University. She has worked for the Montgomery County Records Center & Archives in Dayton, Ohio, for the past twenty-three years. In 2010, the preservation program under her direction received an Achievement Award for its work in preserving Ohio's public history records. She has been the Montgomery County Records & Information Manager since 2011. In 2017, she was appointed to serve on the Ohio Historical Records Advisory Board, the central body for historical records planning in the State of Ohio.

A historical records guide for the Montgomery County Records Center & Archives can be found at:

https://www.mcoho.org/government/other_government_and_community_agencies/records_center_and_archives/historical_records_guide.php