How to Make the Most of Your Genealogical Society Memberships & Newsletters

By Kelli Bergheimer

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 2024 - 1:30 P.M.

Dayton Metro Library, Community Room 2-B
215 E. Third Street, Dayton, OH 45402

In how many genealogical societies are you a member? With so many ancestors in different locations, how can you mine genealogical society newsletters and membership benefits to find more about your ancestors? Joining societies is the best value for your genealogy dollars. Our speaker, Kelli Bergheimer, will offer more information on this interesting topic.

Kelli Bergheimer is a writer, teacher, editor, and national genealogical speaker and holds a Bachelor's degree in Biology, and Master's degrees in Education and in Business Management. Kelli runs two small businesses—GeoCentric Learning and Mess on the Desk, a genealogical organization company with an accompanying blog, YouTube channel, and online store. Kelli is the Central Ohio DNA Interest Group facilitator and a member of the Association of Professional Genealogists, International Society of Genetic Genealogists, and the Genealogical Speaker's Guild.
